

GRAHAM SCOTT'S BIOGRAPHY

July 11, 2008

Graham Scott is a former deputy minister of health and served as interim president and CEO of Cancer Care Ontario, as supervisor of the Hôpital régional de Sudbury Regional Hospital and as assessor of the Muskoka-Parry Sound Board of Health.

Scott is president of Graham Scott Strategies Inc. and counsel to McMillan LLP. He has extensive experience in public policy, governance in the voluntary sector and in the assessment of boards and management teams in both the voluntary and private sectors with a particular emphasis on health care policy and issues.

Scott was born in Nova Scotia and received his law degree from the University of Western Ontario in 1966.

Following two years of law practice in Toronto, Scott served as executive assistant to Robert Stanfield, Leader of the Opposition for Canada. In 1976 he joined the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General and in 1977 he became Assistant Attorney-General, Courts Administration and Inspector of Legal Offices. In 1978 Scott became Associate Secretary of the Cabinet and in 1979 Deputy Minister of Environment where he served until late 1981 when he became Deputy Minister of Health.

He joined McMillan LLP as a partner in January 1984 and was managing partner from 2000 to January 2006.

Scott has extensive experience in representing health and government sector clients in matters of governance and accountability. He has been involved in the amalgamation, restructuring and governance processes of more than 40 hospitals in the last few years.

Scott serves as board chair of the Canadian Institute for Health Information (CIHI), chair of AllenGen NCE Inc., vice chair of OEB Enterprise and vice chair of the Institute for Research on Public Policy and other boards

In 2005, Scott was appointed as a member of the Order of Canada in recognition of his volunteer service to the community.